We have an opportunity for a Junior Sales Consultant based at our busy London office

Primarily office based, candidates should have a strong interest in sales and a 'can do' competitive nature.

The successful applicant will report directly to the London Sales Manager and will be responsible for assisting the sales team with the following tasks over time, with on the job and formal training for the right person and will involve (but not be limited to)

- Maintaining and developing business relationships with new and existing customers.
- Visiting potential customers for new business.
- Preparation of maintenance agreements, pre-tender and tender returns.
- Gathering market and customer information.
- Representing Jackson at trade exhibitions and events.
- Reviewing your own sales performance against targets as you gain experience.

As always, personality and customer care is of vital importance however, in the modern sales environment the ability to properly communicate electronically through email, customer internet based portals and other electronic media requires the successful applicant to have the following basic skills.

- Either 5 GCSE qualifications (or equivalent) at level A to C or relevant proven experience.
- Basic understanding of Microsoft Excel, Word and Outlook.
- Able to communicate effectively with clients, colleagues and internal departments

Benefits of the position for the right applicant include

- Competitive salary (non commission) based on proven experience.
- Participation in the company profit share scheme after a qualifying period.
- Stakeholder pension scheme.
- 25 days paid holiday in addition to public holidays.
- Medicash Health scheme and a contributory Private Health Care scheme.
